The Board will decide which candidates to interview at the December 5, 2019 Board meeting. Hans Hernandez noted that the Board can recommend one or more candidates to the City Council and provide other documentation of the interview process, but the appointment is completely at the discretion of City Council. The Board will interview candidates on the December 12, 2019 Regular Board meeting.

B) Renewal and Discussion of E&O Insurance Policy

Steve Shanks discussed insurance with Ty Goare at Gallagher. GERP is renewing its Errors and Omissions policy. The policy covers the Board’s administration of the EOEP plan and is paid for by the City.

Ty noted that there are two areas where the Board might consider additional coverage. She noted that the Board is not covering Board members who might be sued outside of their official capacity as Board members. In addition, the Board does not have an employment practices policy to cover lawsuits brought on by dissatisfied staff members. The Board asked for additional information regarding these areas.

Steve noted that GERP’s E&O coverage will be renewed and that the other areas will be covered at a future meeting.
C) Evaluation for Pension Plan Administrator – Executive Session

Steve Shanks’s evaluation was deferred to December 12, 2019.

9) Travel Report

Steve Shanks attended the Public Pension Financial Form which covers finance, investments, and actuarial practices. At the forum there was some discussion of adding reporting of plan liabilities using a low, no-risk, discount rate. Since the underlying investments of Public Pension Plans should outperform no-risk investments over time, and since the time horizon for Public Pension plans is long, forum attendees agreed that a low discount rate is inappropriate and misleading.

Steve Shanks also attended the Callan College session on Private Equity investments. He noted that the trend in private equity is toward lower fees. The private equity investments outperformance of the public markets has not been as substantial as it once was.

In addition, Steve attended a one-day Rocky Mountain Pension Conference. Presenters at that conference noted that the current prolonged bull market has lasted a very long time, but also has not been as steep of an increase as past bull markets. The hope is that any correction is a soft landing.

David McConico attended the Abbott Capital Annual Meeting. He noted that Abbott is an evolving organization with many younger investment professionals. Abbott is a smaller organization than HarbourVest. The presentation by the General Partners were interesting.

10) Staff Report

State Street Retiree Services sent GERP a check for $21,091.17. The payment is due to inconsistencies in State Street billings for postage. State Street had various agreements with different clients on how postage would be charged. Since State Street often got a discount due to the mass mailings their cost was lower than what they were charging clients. State Street provided records of all postage data from September 2007 to December 2017 and used a documented methodology to estimate charged from 1995 to 2007. Board members agreed that the check should be deposited in the GERP account at Citywide and no further action will be taken.

Aaron Kahn will be presenting at a Retirement Workshop at the City on November 22, 2019. The workshop with cover GERP, Nationwide 457, the PEHP program, Social Security, Medicare, and Tax ramifications of retirement.

Steve noted that the Holiday Reception is on December 17. Please RSVP to Laura.
At the end of the meeting there wasn’t a quorum.
