MEASURE F  March 5, 2024 election
City Services Tax Renewal

Measure F would:

- Renew the City Services Tax for 12 years with a 20% increase
- Ensure and improve ongoing delivery of core services

What would Measure F cost?

Measure F would increase the current City Services Tax by $11-19/month, depending on property size.

* Includes a 2.6% CPI increase to existing tax for FY24-25. Both the existing and proposed City Services Tax include an annual adjustment of CPI or 4%, whichever is lower.

How would new funds be spent?

The 20% rate increase proposed by Measure F would bring in an additional $538,000 in revenue for FY2025-26. These funds would allow the City to:

- Improve 911 dispatch services and increase staffing support for Police and Fire emergency response
- Invest in technology, such as expanded Automated License Plate Readers, to enhance City services and public safety

About the City Services Tax

For over 40 years, Piedmont’s Municipal Services Parcel Tax (“City Services Tax”) has supported City services, including:

- Police
- Fire response
- Paramedic services
- Streets & sidewalks
- Parks
- Recreation
- Public facilities
- Stormwater Infrastructure

Facts & Figures

- First passed in 1981
- Renewed 10 times by Piedmont voters
- Currently generates $2.6 million/year for City services

Accountability

The Budget Advisory & Financial Planning Committee (BAFPC) reviews expenditures annually and makes recommendations to City Council about the City Services Tax:

“The continued need for the Parcel Tax is demonstrated from the Committee’s review of the City’s recently provided ten-year General Fund financial projections and the City’s facilities maintenance needs.”

- BAFPC report on Municipal Services Parcel Tax (October 2023)
