"This is an excellent program - something for the people and giving back to the people," said Cindy Solis, a resident on Polo Club Drive. "We appreciate it so much."

Block party success!

- 40 free books given away by Community Advocating for Prosperity and Opportunity (CAPO)
- 30 auto trash bags, brochures, grease lids, waterproof cell phone pouches, first aid kits, pens and about 45 sets of work gloves provided for the community by Environmental Services.
