STAFF PICKS

“Wellness”
by Nathan Hill

A 90’s love story that follows the couple Jack and Elizabeth into the 21st century, as they navigate the challenges of parenthood, careers, home-purchasing, judgmental parent-groups, social media, healing childhood trauma and fighting for their love to stay alive. This is a relatable and moving exploration of a modern marriage that will keep you hooked until the end.
– Travis Jimenez, Librarian, Tallyn’s Reach Library

“I've heard about ornamental tree-nappings, but I was shocked at how pervasive timber poaching is in our old-growth forests and communities that live near them. Armchair detectives and fans of forensics will enjoy the discussion of how investigators can (and can’t) gather evidence to catch poachers, while those with an interest in politics will appreciate the complicated history of how this industry came to be so ubiquitous.
– Kitt McAuliffe, Library Assistant, Tallyn’s Reach Library

“Tree Thieves”
by Lyndsie Bourgon

I've heard about ornamental tree-nappings, but I was shocked at how pervasive timber poaching is in our old-growth forests and communities that live near them.
