3.540 Lane County Commission for the Advancement of Human Rights (LCCAHR).
The protection of human rights is a primary responsibility of the County, based on the inalienable rights and inherent worth of all people. In light of that recognition, the LCCAHR shall:

Advise the Board of County Commissioners on the status of civil and human rights in the County, and provide the Board of County Commissioners and County departments community input and feedback regarding human rights and affirmative action; provide community education and outreach concerning human rights programs within Lane County; recommend, support, and assist in development of programs and seminars on human rights, cultural diversity, equal opportunity, and affirmative action; develop and publicize a system to assist persons in seeking resolution of harassment and discrimination complaints and recommend appropriate action; recommend policies and actions to improve access to County services and employment opportunities, and for overcoming cultural, linguistic and physical barriers which limit accessibility; provide an annual report to the Board of County Commissioners on the progress and condition of human rights in Lane County (including past activities, future goals and the number, type, and resolution of complaints); hold at least three (3) Commission meetings outside the Eugene/Springfield area utilizing city council meetings, community forums, and joint meetings with the Commissioner of the District in which the meetings are held; develop a work plan annually for the upcoming year; affirm, encourage, and promote programs and services designed to effectuate the spirit and intent of laws prohibiting discrimination and that recognize and value the cultural diversity of Lane County.

The LCCAHR may take positions on human rights issues as a commission and speak to the public solely on behalf of the LCCAHR. The members shall not take positions on behalf of the County without prior written approval. Positions can be distinguished by a clarifying comment on all written statements and a signature by the chair. Unless approved by the Board, positions taken by LCCAHR do not necessarily reflect the views or positions of the County or the Board of Commissioners. All such written statements must be copied to County Counsel.

STAFFING: County Administration with collaboration with the Human Resources Department. The Board recognizes that dedicated staff is necessary to support the LCCAHR, track and report on complaints, act as liaison within the County organization, oversee grant writing, monitoring, and interns, and otherwise assist and provide administrative support to the LCCAHR.
