DATE/TIME OF RELEASE: 9/7/2017
NATURE OF STORY: Sheriff’s Office Investigates Social Media Threat Involving Pleasant Hill School District
LOCATION: Pleasant Hill
DETAILS:
On the evening of September 6, 2017, the administration of the Pleasant Hill school district reported to the Sheriff’s Office that they received information of a possible threat to the safety and welfare of their students via social media. Deputies are investigating the threats but at this time there is no reliable evidence that suggests that the threat is credible.

The Lane County Sheriff’s Office has been patrolling the area of the school today and tomorrow, and working closely with the Pleasant Hill School district administration.
