2. Are associated with the lives of persons significant in our past.
3. Embody distinctive characteristics of a type, period, or method of construction; that represent the work of a master; that possess high artistic values; or that represent a significant and distinguishable entity whose components may lack individual distinction.
4. Have yielded or may be likely to yield information important to prehistory or history.
5. Are otherwise of particular historic significance to the Township of Montclair by reflecting or exemplifying the broad cultural, political, economic or social history of the nation, state, region or community."
II. History of the Site, Physical Description, Statement of Significance

In 1915, twenty-three Montclair Women met in the Parlor of the YMCA to organize a club “to develop individual efficiency, stimulate interest in current affairs, and encourage cooperation in all lines of progress.” Mrs. Jessie Ropes was elected first president and insisted the group join the New Jersey Federation of Women’s Clubs (NJSFWC), which is part of the General Federation of Women’s Clubs (GFWC). One month later, the group had grown to 162 members.

It took 14 years before the current clubhouse was opened in 1929. Many important community events have taken place there through the years. Through the NJSFWC, founding members donated to the soldiers of WWI and current members continue the altruism by sending Christmas Stockings to the troops in Iraq and Afghanistan.

In April, 2010 the Montclair Women’s Club celebrated 95 years of fellowship and service to the community. The organization is proud of its heritage and strives to live up to the vision of its founders through their slogan, “Following in their Footsteps.”

HISTORY OF WOMEN'S CLUBS

Women’s roles in volunteer organizations throughout the last quarter of the 19th century through the early twentieth century were pivotal in bringing about many of the social and political reforms of the Progressive movement. The formation of Women’s Clubs around the country, and throughout New Jersey, not only provided women a “safe haven” outside the home to develop their role as social reformer, but also created a comfortable atmosphere for self-improvement. The rampant industrialization of America from the mid-to-late nineteenth century enabled a middle-class woman to cultivate her designated role as the moral and domestic compass in the home and in her own community. This is a significant chapter of women’s history, and the recognition of important New Jersey historic sites associated with this aspect of women’s history is key to creating a greater understanding of the role of women in New Jersey’s history.

During the 1890-1940 period of significance as outlined in the, “Clubhouses of New Jersey Women’s Clubs” book, the accomplishments of local New Jersey women’s clubs were as impressive as in their breadth as in their depth and the Montclair Women’s Club is no exception. Club life offered women a “hive” of activity related to intellectual stimulation, social interaction and civic engagement at a time when there were few other options for these opportunities outside the home. The Montclair Women’s Club was one of the most successful examples of the type in the state with a growing membership of 1,200 by the Depression Era, having funded, built and occupied a brand new building by 1929 which they owned clear of any debts.

SIGNIFICANCE:
The earliest building on this section of Claremont Avenue, this vernacular
Italianate Villa defines the south-east corner at the intersection of North Mountain Avenue.

Unique in Montclair, the low scale of the residence makes an interesting contrast to the steep, decorative pabals of the Schultz mansion high on the opposite slope of the Avenues.

While the window grouping is interesting & unusual, the small scale Palladian windows seem out of character w/ the rest of the architecture.

The first residents of the house are listed as Edward M. & Carrie Harrison.
Mr. Harrison was a New York merchant, who played a large part in the development of public roads in the area.

The house was included in the Montclair State College photographic exhibit,
"Villas, Cottages & Country Residences" of 1978.
