You Have a Choice Where and How You Live:
The Connecticut Home Care Program for Elders

Connecticut residents ages 65+ who are in need of more care and services—such as home care services or nursing facility services—and meet required income levels, are eligible for Connecticut Home Care Program for Elders (CHCPE), a program designed to help older adults remain at home.

Get the Help You Need
Sometimes health or life events can cause our abilities to change. When these changes affect daily living activities like getting washed and dressed, preparing meals, or remembering to take medication, you or your family may be feeling unsure about your ability to live independently in your own home.

There's good news: CHCPE helps eligible older adults remain independent at home.

CHCPE is designed to help older adults remain at home, in their communities, while still receiving the help they need. Each care plan is developed with the individual in mind; your care plan will be unique to you.

Frequently Asked Questions

What is CHCPE?
CHCPE is a state-funded program that can help you to remain at home—if that's what you choose. CHCPE can provide many useful services and a level of care that is similar to a long-term facility, such as a nursing home.

What kind of help does CHCPE offer?
The care plan depends on the situation. A person may benefit from a lot of help with several things, or may only require someone to keep them company during the day and assist with chores. CHCPE offers a full range of services. This includes everything from adult day services to companion services and home-delivered meals. A trained care manager will work with you to learn about your needs and make a plan just for you.

Can I afford CHCPE?
There are income guidelines for CHCPE services. Call 860.424.4904 for information. CHCPE staff are ready to help you through the process.

How can I apply?
There are several ways to apply. You can apply online, over the phone at 860-424-4904, or by mail. It's that simple.

How do I know if staying home is right for me?
A CHCPE care manager will help you through the steps to figure out what's best for you.
