Mission Statement and the responsibilities of the Parks, Recreation and Open Space Advisory Board.

E. Commemorative Bench Program – Tracy Young, Manager of Parks Planning, Design and Construction gave a slideshow presentation. The current cost to donate a bench to be placed in a PROS Department owned property is $2,205. The actual cost for the PROS department to purchase, deliver and install a bench is $2,600 to $3,600, depending on where the bench is located. Staff has re-evaluated the donation cost and is recommending the cost be increased to $2,605 which would cover the department cost for benches at the low end. She asked for a board recommendation on revising the cost of the commemorative bench to $2,605. Chair Crouthers asked how long has it been since rate was increased. Tracy Young replied at least 2 or 3 years. Member Zbikowski asked, for benches in process that were purchased at the original cost prior to proposed increase, how is the excess cost being funded? Tracy responded PROS Department would absorb the extra cost. A member asked if it was possible to list a price range based on location since Aurora Reservoir and golf courses have a higher cost. Chair Crouthers proposed to list a base price at $2,650 that can be increased based on location and Brooke Bell, PROS Director, agreed. Board members unanimously agreed that the cost does need to be increased to help cover more of the cost to the department.

F. Southeast Recreation Center (SERC) Presentation – Tracy Young gave a slideshow presentation. Tracy explained the purpose of this presentation is to show the plans of the new recreation center and gather feedback for the upcoming Reservoir Master Plan Amendment process. The site for new recreation center is on Section 17, also called Reservoir Community Park. It is a 600 acre site that was conveyed to the City of Aurora in 1984 by the Federal government. The recreation center site plan needs to be added into the Aurora Reservoir Master Plan through an Amendment that will be presented at a public hearing on June 10, 2020. The presentation included site plans, photos of views from the site, architectural concept drawings, and specifications of the building and grounds. The center will be approximately 52,000 square feet, with a 270 space parking lot. Some of the amenities include a pool with lap lanes, lazy river, water slide, party rooms, full court gymnasium, single lane running track, locker rooms and changing areas, fitness area with free weights and cardio machines, outdoor fitness patio, two multi-purpose rooms that can be joined together for one large room, fitness area studio, kitchens, and an elevated 1/8 mile figure eight running track. Member McClure asked if there was additional land around the recreation center that will offer outdoor recreational opportunities. Tracy responded yes, the remaining 600 acres on the site is designated as a future community park. Member McClure asked how close future houses will be built to the recreation center. Tracy and Joe Sack replied that any new homes built will be on the west side of Harvest road. Member McClure asked if it was possible for one to bike to the recreation center from the closest housing development. Joe replied, yes.
