4. Guest Speaker(s)
   Sandy Thomas, Co-Chairperson for the Aurora Commission for Seniors
   Sandy stated that one of the goals of their commission is to collaborate and engage with other boards and commissions, this includes cross-generational collaborations such as with the Aurora Youth Commission and the Veterans Affairs Commission. Sandy was appreciative of the invitation to join this evenings meeting. Sandy stated their commission was recently approved for a name change by City Council. The new name is Aurora Commission for Older Adults. Sandy provided an overview of the commission’s objectives. Sandy stated that they have commission members that live in each Ward, expect for Ward II at this time. The commission members attend their Ward meetings regularly, to ensure that seniors are included in vital conversations related to policies and ordinances. The commission recently started working with Luke Palmisano, with the City of Aurora’s Office of Intergovernmental Relations. Luke has assisted the commission with organizing lobbying efforts for or against new state legislation related to older adults. Sandy stated that the commission recently presented to City Council and asked that Council review city documents, marketing, etc. and remove words such as “elderly” or “senior” and replace with “older adults.”

In addition, Sandy stated that once City Council begins meeting in-person, the commission intends to have a table in the AMC lobby, to provide resource materials to the public. (INFO)
